Farm Price Support Losses Tripled Since Ike Took Over

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—Government losses in supporting farm prices during the Eisenhower administration have been nearly three times greater than the total losses during the preceding 20 years of federal farm aid programs.

London Papers Break 'Rift' Story

LONDON, Monday, Feb. 11 (AP)—Three London newspapers broke a three-day silence today and told the British public rumors have been published abroad of a rift between Queen Elizabeth and her husband.

The Daily Express, the Daily Herald and the Daily Mirror published one article each quoting a palace spokesman's denial of the rumors.

The Mirror and Express carried no details of rumors published in U.S. newspapers. The Herald, however, quoted extensively from New York newspapers.

The denial came Friday from the palace press secretary in a statement to The Associated Press.

Reporter Who Defied Ban Still Has Passport

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 (AP)—William Worthy, one of three United States newsmen who went to Red China despite a State Department ban, said today he still has the passport U.S. authorities tried to take away from him.

The 35-year-old reporter, a Negro, discussed the passport after arriving here by plane from Boston.

"I have it right here in my pocket and it's going to stay there," Worthy said.

He added, however, that the American Civil Liberties Union is handling the legal aspects of his case "and if they advise me to forfeit it, I will certainly confirm with their request."

Stories Not Censored

During his 41-day tour of Red China, he said, there was no censorship of his news stories.

Worthy is an employee of the Baltimore Afro-American who also served as a special correspondent for the New York Post and made some broadcasts for the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Worthy and Edmund Stevens and Philip Harrington, reporter and photographer respectively for Look magazine, traveled to China from Moscow.

The three men defied a U.S. government order that newsmen must remain away from Communist China as long as Americans were imprisoned there.

Look magazine has asked a hearing on the State Department's move to revoke Stevens' passport. Stevens is in Moscow.

Harrington returned to New York several days ago. No action has been taken against him.

In Budapest several days ago, Worthy said, his passport was formally demanded by Vice Consul Richard R. Selby Jr.

ANPA Backs Newsmen

The case of the three newsmen has been championed by the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., and Editor & Publisher, newspaper trade weekly.

In Boston, Worthy said Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai told him in an interview he does not think President Eisenhower is a "man of peace."

Worthy also quoted Chou En-lai as saying:

"The fact that the United States government revoked the passports of the three U. S. newsmen who visited (Red) China shows the United States has not taken into consideration the desire of the American people to improve relations with the Chinese people."

Bombs Kill 11 In Algiers

ALGIERS, Feb. 10 (AP)—Time bombs exploded in two jam-packed football stadiums here today, killing 11 persons and wounding at least 45.

The bombs—one in the Ruisseau Municipal Stadium and two in the El Biar Stadium across town—exploded almost simultaneously in midafternoon just after soccer games between local teams had begun.

There were approximately 3,000 spectators in El Biar Stadium and twice as many in the other. After police and troops cleared aside the panic-stricken crowd, they rushed the victims to hospitals and clinics in ambulances and private cars.

It was the heaviest one-day toll reaped by nationalist terrorists in this capital since the Algerian rebellion began 27 months ago.

A spokesman for Resident Minister Robert Lacoste said the dead included eight Europeans and three Arabs. There were reports that furious Europeans beat some Arabs suspected of planting the bombs.

Saud To Report To Arab Chiefs On U. S. Mission

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 10 (AP)—Saudi Arabia's King Saud will report on his visit to Washington at an Arab Big Four summit conference in Cairo Feb. 18 or 19, an informed source said today.

This second meeting of Arab heads of state within a month will be attended by King Hussein of Jordan, President Shukri Kuwaili of Syria and Egypt's President Nasser, the source said.

Saud's Washington visit resulted in agreement for the United States' continued use of the Dhahran air base in return for U. S. military-economic aid to Saudi Arabia.

U. S. officials are optimistic that Saud will try to persuade the other Arab leaders to accept President Eisenhower's program for blocking Communist expansion in the Middle East. Saud arrived in Madrid today, en route home.

One Cairo newspaper today expressed skepticism about the consequences of Saud's mission to the United States, while another reported optimism among Arab diplomats in Washington.

5 Die When Cars Collide In Fog

WATERLOO, Ill., Feb. 10 (AP)—Two cars collided head-on in fog near here today and five persons—an East St. Louis, Ill., couple and three suburban St. Louis youths—were killed.

The crash scene on State Rt. 3 was one-half mile south of another head-on crash six months ago which also killed five people.

The dead: Charles Sligar, 44, and his wife, Natalie, 45, of East St. Louis; Daniel Lee Reed, 17, of Shrewsbury, Mo.

Robert Lee Brown, 17, also of Shrewsbury, Mo.; James Mason, 16, of Maplewood, Mo.

Police reported the car driven by Sligar was northbound and the car carrying the three boys was being driven south when they collideded in the no-survivor accident about 25 miles south of St. Louis.

U. S. Reds Reject Change To Nonparty Association

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 (AP)—The American Communist party voted in convention today against changing into a nonparty political action association with a new name.

The issue was described by Simon Gerson, chairman of the party's Press Committee, as one of "the most contentious" that had faced the convention.

He said the question was debated vigorously for two hours but that the final vote among the approximately 300 delegates showed that three votes opposed to continuing the political party. There were 17 abstentions.

In the resolution adopted by the convention the door was left open, however, to further discussions of the political association possibilities under ground rules to be set up by the incoming National Committee.

Hammaraskjold Readies Report, Talks With Eban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Feb. 10 (AP)—Mrs. Golda Meir, Israeli foreign minister, said today her talks with U.N. economic pressure would not drive Israel away from the Gaza Strip and the mouth of the Gulf of Aqaba.

She told a reporter "Israel can't leave these points without guarantees" of security against renewed Arab raids from the Strip and against a renewed Egyptian blockade of the gulf, which leads from the Red Sea to the Israeli port of Eilat.

She was interviewed as Arab delegates talked of asking the U.N. General Assembly for economic penalties aimed at forcing Israel to pull out of those localities, withdrawing her invasion troops behind the 1949 Egypt-Israel armistice line.

U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, meanwhile, worked on a report that would tell the Assembly Israel had not complied with the Assembly's six successive resolutions calling for withdrawal.

He invited Abba Eban, Israeli ambassador to the U.N. and Washington, to talk with him in his office. It was supposed he would show Eban the report before making it public tomorrow.

Muhammad H. El Farra of Syria, secretary of the Asian-African group of 27 delegations, said the group would meet tomorrow "to consider the question of sanctions," generally understood here to mean economic, diplomatic and sometimes military penalties. The Assembly is expected to meet Tuesday to take up Hammarskjold's report.

Israel Asks Freedom Of Suez Canal Passage

TEL AVIV, Israel, Feb. 10 (AP)—Prime Minister Ben-Gurion has told President Eisenhower that Israel now insists on freedom of Suez Canal passage as part of its Sinai and Gaza Strip evacuation price, an informed source said tonight.

The source said the demand was in a message to Eisenhower sent by Ben-Gurion last week in reply to a letter from the President.

Goodyear, URW Sign New Pact

DAYTON, Ohio, Feb. 10 (AP)—Agreement on a new master contract between the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. and the United Rubber Workers, covering some 24,000 hourly employees in 11 plants, was announced here today in a joint statement by company and union.

Company and union officials signed the contract at 4 p.m., just eight hours before the expiration of the old contract, thus avoiding any threat of a strike.

Negotiators worked late into Saturday night and reached a tentative agreement on terms, but the final wording was not officially incorporated into the contract until this afternoon.

The contract deals with new vacation schedules and other fringe benefits.

"General wage levels were not a subject of the negotiations," the joint statement said.

Franco Welcomes King Saud To Spain

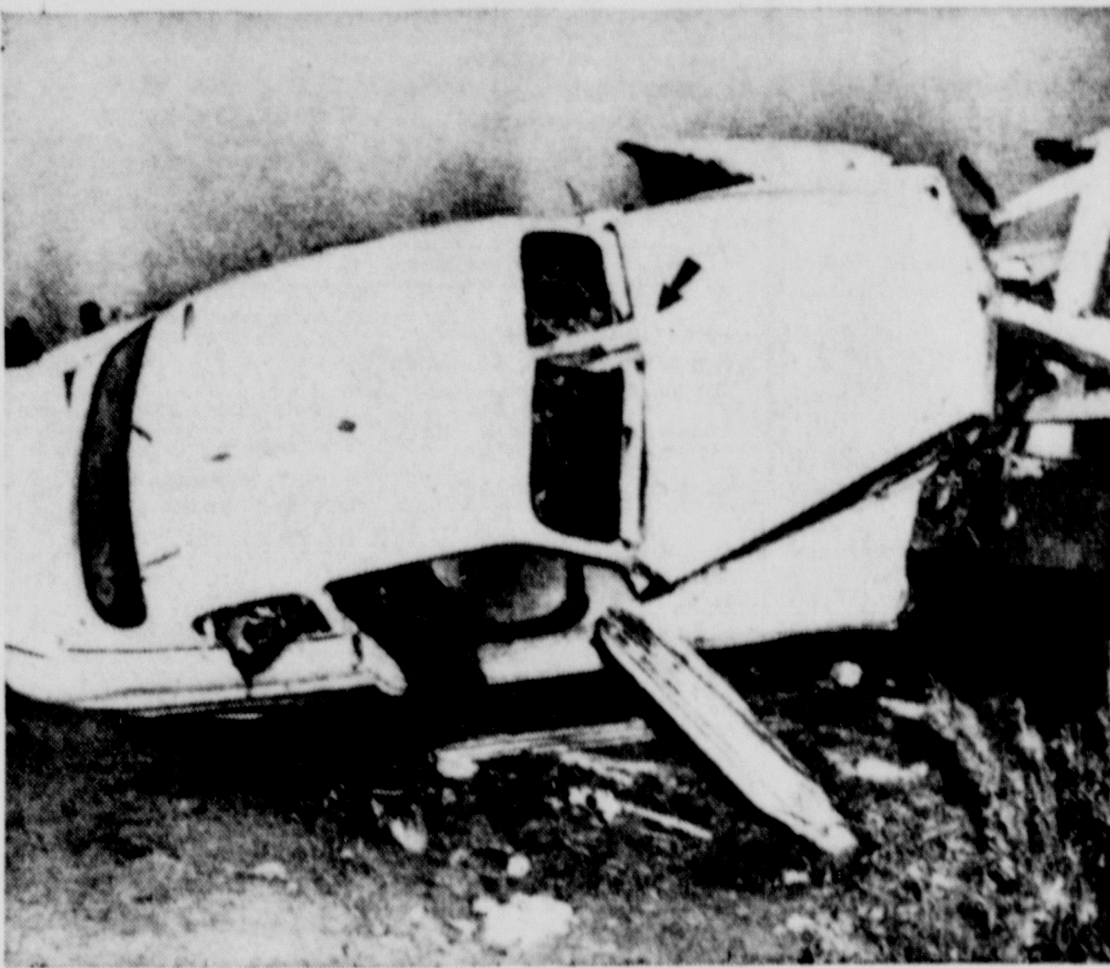

MADRID, Spain, Feb. 10 (AP)—King Saud arrived here today from Washington for five days of conferences with Generalissimo Francisco Franco and Sultan Mohammed V of Morocco.

Franco greeted the Saudi Arabian monarch at the airport as a crowd of 5,000 roared out a welcome. So great was the noise that frightened Prince Mashhur, the King's 3½-year-old son, refused to get off the plane for 20 minutes.

Ohio Hit By Floods

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Feb. 10 (AP)—Rivers and creeks in Scioto County roared out of their banks following a two-inch rainfall today, flooding homes and causing heavy damages to roads and bridges.

Floodwaters hit Portsmouth, North Moreland, Eden Park, New Boston, and other rural parts of the county.

The Driver Got A Speeding Ticket

Airman 1/c Herbert Reiszner, the driver, and three companions escaped with only slight injuries after his car struck the corner of this bridge south of San Rafael, Calif., in a heavy fog. An 8 by 8 inch guard rail (arrow) was driven through the center of the automobile, narrowly missing the occupants. The Highway Patrol said a speeding ticket was issued Reiszner. (AP Photofax)

West Virginia Floods Force Scores To Flee

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Feb. 10 (AP)—Flood waters in the wake of heavy rain forced scores of central West Virginians to evacuate their homes temporarily last night and early today, but no casualties were reported.

The West Fork River rose 13 feet in as many hours last night at Weston, a community of 9,000 some 25 miles south of here.

The river crested there about 8 a.m. at 22.03 feet and then started receding. At the peak flow, Weston was isolated and a number of families fled to higher ground.

State police said Weston was the worst hit community in the flood zone. The town had 2½ inches of rainfall.

At Clarksburg, the West Fork reached 11.45 feet this afternoon—4½ feet above flood level. An estimated 100 families were evacuated from their homes, some by firemen in boats.

Elk Creek, which empties into the West Fork here, was the highest it has been in 41 years. The stream runs through the heart of the city, and property damage was extensive. No exact estimate was available.

In neighboring southwest Pennsylvania, the turbulent Monongahela River threatened to inundate low-lying roads and some rural areas but no flooding of major proportions was expected.

Three Children Die When Home Burns

FISHING CREEK, Md., Feb. 10 (AP)—Three children were burned to death and a fourth was in critical condition as a result of a fire which broke out early today in their home on Hooper Island.

The victims were identified as Bonnie Jane Hall, 1, found dead in her crib on the first floor; her brother, Ralph Hall Jr., 2, and a half brother, Franklin Regina, 7.

In a Cambridge hospital is James Regina 4, brother of Franklin.

Deputy Sheriff Calvin Creighton said the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, told him they left the youngsters in care of two teenage boys when they left the home about 12:30 a.m. today. The boys were not identified, and could not be located immediately.

ILA Says Dock Strike Certain

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 (AP)—The longshoremen's union said tonight its talks with shippers have broken down and "there is no hope whatever for a settlement" before a Tuesday strike deadline.

The longshoremen are free to resume Tuesday a strike which was halted after nine days last November by a Taft-Hartley injunction. The injunction expires at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Louis Waldman, counsel for the International Longshoremen's Assn., came out of a mediation session to announce that the talks were stalemated.

Earlier there were reports that the parties were near a settlement.

Later, however, Waldman told newsmen that the New York Shipping Assn., representing waterfront employers, had turned down a mediator's formula for settlement.

Italy Socialists Sever Red Link

VENICE, Italy, Feb. 10 (AP)—Pietro Nenni's Socialists, who say they are through with communism after 10 years of fellow-traveling, voted almost unanimously today to merge again with their old partners, the moderate Social Democrats.

Repercussions from such a merger could tell Premier Antonio Segni's government, a middle-road coalition that depends on 19 Social Democratic votes to maintain its majority in the Chamber of Deputies.

A Social Democratic authority said last week his party would withdraw from the government if Nenni, who commands 75 votes in the 590-seat chamber, broke the "unity of action" pact which aligned the Socialist party with Italy's Communists in October 1946.

Confirmation seemed to come in a motion adopted here at the close of the Nenni Socialists' most important congress in a decade. The motion said "the central coalition—of Premier Segni—is being dissolved due to the reform efforts of the Social Democrats."

Nenni said he had broken with the Communists. A Stalin Peace Prize winner of 1951, he told the congress the unified Socialists would try to force a new national election and take over the government.

Pravda finds it necessary to explain again what Russians did in Hungary and Sweden.

The letter asked whether Nagy's government resigned or was overthrown and if it was overthrown with Soviet help did this not amount to Soviet interference in Hungary's internal affairs.

Pravda answered that Nagy's government "fell apart" and that Kadar valiantly filled the breach.

The Laborites quoted Kadar as saying on Nov. 15 that "we must bear in mind the possibility of utter defeat at the polls" and asked on this basis if the Kadar government could claim the support of a majority of the Hungarian people.

Pravda replied: "We know of no statement of this sort by Janos Kadar." It quoted several other Kadar statements claiming the full support of the people.

Mail Rate Hike Urged To Avert Billion Deficit

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—Postal officials foresee a future Post Office Department operating deficit of as much as a billion dollars a year unless first class mail rates are increased from the present three cents to five cents.

The House Appropriations Committee today made public testimony in which Maurice H. Stans, deputy postmaster general, said such losses could develop "in the very near future."

Stans gave official notice that the administration will ask Congress to approve a five-cent charge for mailing ordinary letters, an increase which the department had said earlier was under consideration.

Congress Fight Certain

In his budget message last month, President Eisenhower said he would ask for 654 million dollars worth of annual postal rate hikes.

The request to hike the three-cent letter charge to five cents is certain to touch off another loud fight in Congress, which has balked at a proposed increase to four cents.

Stans, who testified at a closed committee hearing in mid-January, said the Post Office will go in the red 651 million dollars next year on the basis of estimated costs and revenues.

Railroads Want More Money

This figure could go up another 103 million dollars, he said, if railroads are granted a pending request for increases in mail hauling freight charges.

Postmaster General Summerfield is to appear before the House Post Office Committee Feb. 19 or 20 to present the department's rate proposals.

Second Inquest Today In Grimes Girls' Death

CHICAGO, Feb. 10 (AP)—A second inquest session was set for tomorrow as investigators continued to probe for a key to the baffling puzzle of the Grimes girls' fate.

Some 75 volunteers today re-examined the ground in the vicinity of the spot 19 miles southwest of Chicago's Loop, where the nude, frozen bodies of Barbara Grimes, 15, and her 13-year-old sister, Patricia, were found Jan. 22.

Va. Senator Seeks Slash Of $5 Billion

Finance Committee Chairman Drafting Alternate Program

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) proposed today that Congress cut President Eisenhower's $71,800,000,000 budget by "at least five billion dollars" in an anti-inflation move.

Byrd, who heads the Senate Finance Committee, disclosed he is drafting an alternate budget plan for specific reductions in non-defense spending.

Alternate, and lower, budgets were offered by Byrd during the tenure of former President Harry S. Truman. There were indications the Virginia senator now intends to direct similar hot fire against the Eisenhower administration, with which he has worked closely on fiscal matters.

"The President's budget is inflationary at a time when the country is facing a definite threat of inflation," Byrd said. "It represents an increase in domestic spending of seven billion dollars over outlays in fiscal year 1954."

Truman Budget Cut Recalled

"The principal reason why the Eisenhower administration was able to stabilize the dollar in its first three years in office was because the President, with the help of Congress, cut nine billion dollars out of the budget Truman had proposed."

"We have certainly gone into a period of inflation now and the Eisenhower budget will increase that trend. It ought to be cut five billion dollars and I am going to try to show Congress how that could be accomplished."

Byrd has contended that Eisenhower's estimate that the budget will be more than balanced by an anticipated increase of about three billion dollars in revenues indicates the administration expects an inflationary trend to continue.

Reduction Invited

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, who maintains close contact with Byrd, has invited Congress to trim the budget but has declined to point out to congressional committees where reductions can be made.

Eisenhower also has expressed hope that the legislators will be able to trim his budget.

Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California predicted yesterday that Congress will find ways of cutting two billion dollars out of Eisenhower's total money requests. In addition to his $71,800,000,000 spending budget for the fiscal year starting July 1, Eisenhower has asked that 1½ billion dollars be appropriated for later outlays.

Dog Who Leaped Off Train Returns To Old Address

OAKLAND, Calif., Feb. 10 (AP)—Sugar Ray, the little dog whose disappearance last Tuesday from a train had Mrs. A. L. Newcomer in a dither ever since, showed up safe today. And guess where? In the lobby of an Oakland hotel where the two once lived.

That was all of two years ago before Mrs. Newcomer, 29, married a Navy man and went to live in Honolulu. Recently her husband was ordered transferred to Long Beach.

The 4-year-old brownish-red toy Shepherd slipped out of a box Tuesday night at Berkeley and bounded off a Southern Pacific train into the darkness.

Mrs. Newcomer was so distraught when she got to Los Angeles that she camped out in the Union Station there for four days. She said, "We're staying here until they find my dog."

31 Peronists Seized

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 10 (AP)—An Argentine news service said today government security forces have arrested 31 supporters of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron in raids aimed at cracking an alleged terrorist plot in suburban Buenos Aires. The government made no comment.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q 1—As dealer you hold:
♠AKQ ♥AKQ ♦AKQ ♣9742
What is your opening bid?

A—It will be seen that there is no completely satisfactory opening bid with this holding. It is a balanced hand with a point count of 27, which brings it within the limits of an opening three no trump bid, and that is my choice. I know that such a bid announces that all four suits are protected, but I feel that an exception may be made in this case, since you can make game in your own hand unless the opposition can run five club tricks against you, which is unlikely.

Q 2—As dealer you hold:
♠A85 ♥AQ103 ♦AQ542 ♣3
What is your opening bid?

A—The better strategic call is one heart rather than one diamond. If you open with one diamond and partner responds two clubs, your hand is not quite strong enough for the reverse bid of two hearts. Therefore, it is better to treat those suits as equal and bid the same length so that a convenient rebid is provided over partner's expected response.

Q 3—As South you hold:
♠Q107 ♥QJ874 ♦5 ♣532
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 diamond Pass 1 heart Pass
2 no trump Pass 2 hearts Pass
What do you bid now?

A—Hearts, it must be with this hand, and you must, therefore, dutifully continue to four. This does not show any additional values, for you bid each time at the lowest level that it was possible for you to do so. Your repeated bids in hearts show a weak hand with length in hearts. This does not look like a promising hand for no trump.

Q 4—As South you hold:
♠K7653 ♥AQ8 ♦AK82 ♣8
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 spade Pass 3 diamonds Pass
2 hearts Pass
What do you bid now?

A—We would be willing to assume at this time that our major suits were solid and consequently are concerned primarily with the number of aces. We would, therefore, bid four no trump (Blackwood), and if partner showed two aces, we would risk a grand slam in spades.

Q 5—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠A2 ♥K9 ♦K9532 ♣8543
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 club 1 spade 2 clubs 2 spades
2 spades Pass 3 no trump Pass
What do you bid now?

A—Though you had a very sound reason to start with, we recommend a return to five clubs. The bidding has made it clear that your ace of spades is not as impressive a card as you thought it would be from the beginning, inasmuch as it duplicates partner's void.

Q 6—As South you hold:
♠K6 ♥AQ763 ♦AQ73 ♣96
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 heart Pass 1 spade Pass
2 diamonds Pass 2 spades Pass
What do you bid now?

A—You have more values than you have previously shown, and since partner has rebid spades, you have normal support for that suit. One more try is recommended in the form of a raise to three spades.

Q 7—As South you hold:
♠AJ95 ♥K5 ♦9852 ♣AQJ
What is your opening bid?

A—This hand is just a shade light for an opening bid of one no trump, and it might be found convenient to open it with one club. The objection to bidding a spade is that a somewhat awkward rebid situation develops if partner responds with two hearts.

Q 8—As South you hold:
♠982 ♥J ♦AJ6 ♣AK8542
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 spade Pass 2 clubs Pass
2 hearts Pass
What do you bid now?

A—No very convenient rebid is available at the moment. A move to two spades could not be considered on grounds of inadequacy. A move to three spades is certainly not to be entertained with such a meager trump holding. In preference to trying two no trump, we would temporize with a bid of three diamonds. If partner proceeds to three no trump, we relax. If he rebids hearts, we return to three spades. If he rebids spades, we take him to four.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 10.—(INS)—Of all the stories, plays and scripts handed Audrey Hepburn the one she really wanted was "The Nun's Story"—and she gets it! Audrey had said, "I was acting that role all the time I was reading the book"—which Jack Warner may or may not have overheard. At any rate, he's giving her this dramatic prize.

But before she reports in Hollywood, Audrey goes to Switzerland for a rest which is coming to her after two movies in a row, "Funny Face" and "Love In The Afternoon."

The authoress, Kathryn Hulme, will confer on the script of her book which has been at the top of the non-fiction best seller list for over six months. Fred Zinnemann, the producer-director, says "The Nun's Story" will be filmed in part in the Belgian Congo and the rest in Hollywood.

I didn't eavesdrop when I saw Doris Day and Marty Melcher sit down with Harry Cohn at the Photoplay awards dinner and talk, but I happen to know that they were discussing a remake of "Theodora Goes Wild," which formerly starred Irene Dunne, for Doris.

Doris would like very much to make a picture at Columbia and Harry would be crazy (which he isn't) if he didn't want to sign her. So while it's just at the talking stage, you can expect to hear one of these days soon that Doris is making a picture for Cohn of Columbia.

The very distinguished director Martin Ritt, who directed Arthur Miller's "View From The Bridge" on Broadway, has himself a motion picture contract.

Buddy Adler signed Ritt on an exclusive deal for 20th Century-Fox and the director's first picture will be "Down Payment" by Philip Yordan. This is a break both for Ritt and for 20th. So far no cast has been chosen.

Report Urging Resegregation Of Schools Hit

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—The national chairman of the Anti-Defamation League today criticized as "one-sided and negative" the report of a House subcommittee which recommended that District of Columbia schools return to racial segregation.

The Anti-Defamation League is a division of B'nai B'rith, Jewish service organization.

ADL Chairman Henry Edward Schultz, a member of the New York City Board of Higher Education, made his comment in connection with publication by the ADL of a report on D.C. desegregation by Carl F. Hansen, assistant superintendent of schools.

Schultz said the report, titled "A Miracle of Social Adjustment," was written before that of the House subcommittee headed by Rep. James C. Davis (D-Ga.) was published Dec. 28.

"It is not intended as a rebuttal to the subcommittee's findings," Schultz said. "Nevertheless, Dr. Hansen's own evaluation of the accomplishments of the integration program stand in strong contradiction to and offset the conclusions of the subcommittee."

Davis declined to comment.

Survivor Held In Auto Plunge Fatal To Seven

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 10 (AP)—A man whose wife and five children were among seven drowned in the Miami River plunge of his car was charged today with manslaughter in all seven deaths.

Ralph Evans, 50, one of two survivors of what investigators called Florida's worst auto accident, was booked at Dade County jail and bond was set at $5,000.

Evans' wife, Teresa, 22, and their five children, George, 5, Henry, 4, Raymond, 2, and Louis and Anthony, 6-month-old twins, perished with Charles Wright, 12, a family acquaintance, when Evans' car veered off Rt. 27 into about eight feet of Miami River water. Struggling to safety through a window with Evans was Edwin McDonough, 58, a friend. Both men were hospitalized briefly for shock and minor injuries.

Wounds Prove Fatal To Deputy's Slayer

JELICO, Tenn., Feb. 10 (AP)—A well-heeled Kentuckian who, police said, stalked up to a jeep and without warning shot and killed a deputy sheriff and wounded another, died today of wounds inflicted by the officers.

Elmer Davis, 47, of Pikeville, Ky., died in Jellico Hospital of cheek and chest wounds suffered last night in the brief gun battle.

Campbell County Sheriff Willie Chapman said Davis, who carried $8,000 at the time, opened fire for no apparent reason with a 12-gauge shotgun on Deputies Matt Parton and Brownlow Munday.

Parton, about 63, was mortally wounded by a blast which struck him above the heart. Munday, about 60, was in fair condition at the hospital after his shattered right arm was amputated at the elbow.

No Signs Of Violence On Musician's Body

BALTIMORE, Feb. 10 (AP)—The medical examiner's office reported there were "no signs of violence" on the oil-soaked body of a Baltimore musician found in Curtis Creek.

Anne Arundel County police said the body of Alfred G. Hornig, 53-year-old piano salesman and part-time church organist, was identified Saturday from keys and a signet ring found in pockets of his clothing. Hornig had been missing since Dec. 16.

Dr. William V. Lovitt, assistant medical examiner, attributed the death to drowning. He said:

"There were no bruises, no skull fracture and no bullet wounds on the body."

Peabody Institute Marks Founding

BALTIMORE, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Peabody Institute of Baltimore today opened a three-day celebration of its founding 100 years ago by George Peabody, grocer turned financier and philanthropist.

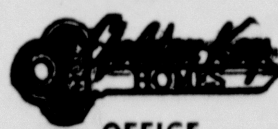

Founded in 1857 at a cost of 1½ million dollars, the institute with its music conservatory and library is perhaps the most famous of the numerous philanthropies Peabody established in his lifetime with a fortune amassed in England and America.

In keeping with the founder's Anglo-American sentiments, the centennial observance will close Tuesday night with a speech by Sir Harold Caccia, new British ambassador to the United States.

Technical Aid Urged In Depressed Areas

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—A private study group urged today that the federal government extend to depressed areas in this country the same sort of technical aid it gives to some foreign nations.

A special committee of the National Planning Assn. suggested this as one facet of a "vigorous" federal program which it said is needed to relieve chronic local unemployment.

The 20-member group of industrialists and economists said such a program should be carried out in cooperation with local and private agencies.

Other federal aids suggested included new plant financing through direct loans or government guarantees of private loans, and special types of tax exemptions to stimulate business expansion.

Lady Legislators Set New Record

A record number of women—314 of them—are members of this year's state legislatures. The previous high was 308 in 1955. But women lawmakers still have a long way to go to catch up with the men; the total membership of the state legislative bodies is approximately 8500. State Senates have 28 distaff members — 15 Republicans, 12 Democrats, one independent, Republicans far outnumber their rivals in the lower houses—of the 286 women members of these, 189 ran under the GOP banner, 95 as Democrats, two as independents.

These and other fascinating data come from the annual survey made by the Women's Division of the Republican National Committee. It's a good record, says Miss Bertha S. Adkins, assistant GOP chairman, but "women's representation in state legislative halls... is not commensurate with the possibilities for women's public service and their contributions toward efficient government." The same may be said of the national legislature. The new Congress has 16 women members, also a record but proportionally not impressive. The only woman senator is Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine). The Democrats have nine women Representatives, the GOP only six.

Why don't more women get elected? Some say women don't really care for politics; it's too tough for them, requires too much of their time. A book of which Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is co-author gives a different answer: "It is next to impossible for a woman to get the nomination in a district where her party can win."

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Heart Fund

Admiral Richard E. Byrd signed a letter asking that good things be said about the American Heart Association which underwrites research concerning the heart.

As part of this campaign, which occurs every year in February, a little pamphlet is being circulated which gives six ways of safeguarding the heart from knocking you out. The first way is to ask your doctor when you feel "symptoms." As you are not likely to feel any "symptoms" until you are in trouble, this advice is not particularly useful. As a matter of fact, I had myself examined two or three times a year without any particular "symptoms" until I was knocked out.

Some folks get "symptoms" as soon as they see a doctor. If the doctors' nurses and telephone operators, receptionists, etc., were not so stiff and lugubrious, patients would not get so scared. The reason they are that way is that doctors object to their palavering, lest their tongues slip and they say something unprofessional about the profession. I recall once asking a nurse, just to make conversation, whether the sandy goo they put on a carcass while they're taking a cardiogram is not ground glass mixed in vaseline. Poor thing! I had put her on the spot.

The second idea in this pamphlet is to control your weight. It says: "Look better, feel better, etc., etc., with normal weight." It could be stated simply, "So far as doctors now know, it is safer to be skinny than fat." As for looking better, that is a matter of taste. Some like them thin; some like them bulbous. Jayne Mansfield comes closer to my ideal of a female, although Maude Adams looked very attractive in my childhood.

Also, nobody knows at what weight another fellow feels better. It is an historic fact that the Cassius-shaped men have lean and hungry looks, as Shakespeare rightly sized them up. Most of them have acers and quarrel with the world. I prefer the Falstaff type, rollicking, boisterous, conceited, full of good cheer and always optimistic because he has not yet seen the worst and therefore has something to look forward to.

The third point is to get enough rest. Again, how much is enough? It is like a tale about a man who had half a dozen wives and lived to be 87 years old. He was licentious, libidinous and lecherous but he neither exercised nor rested inordinately, having to scheme plentifully to supply food and millinery for his vast household. In this country, we might have called him a racketeer; in his own, he was known as a high official. His steward died of over-activity.

To lie in bed and become anxious as to what every scoundrel, friend and tax-collector is going to do, is not healthful. It is better to escape to television than to worry about taxes. The latter will leave you poor, whether your report is honest or dishonest and the heart generally goes wrong between January 1 and March 15. Maybe a statistician looking for a Ph. D. can write a thesis to prove the incidence of coronary occlusions during the indicated period.

Number four of the pamphlet is smart. It says, "... Have fun—but act your age." My good friend, Dr. Maurice Lewi, is 99 going on 100 and generally speaking, I would say that he is a right and up-coming fellow. I know several men past 80 who have more get than lots of teen-agers who are worried about wars and pensions and hydrogen bombs and why you get mononucleosis, which comes from forbidden kissing. The kids tell me it comes from tough examinations and that if some of those who write the examination papers would drop dead, nobody would get mononucleosis.

How to keep physically fit is a matter of taste. Some go to a Turkish bath, get themselves pounded by a Swede or a Finn and then fill their skins with whisky and fat foods. Harry Truman takes a walk before breakfast which strikes me as a fetch because after that walk it is necessary to eat a larger breakfast. Or, does he take the walk after breakfast?

Anyhow, if you have some money to spare, you might give it to the Heart Fund. Maybe, they will one day find a detergent that will clean the cholesterol out of the arteries

How Do You Avoid Stepping On Someone's Toes?

A Soviet Boomtown And Its Interesting People

By Joseph Alsop

IN DEEP snow, with the glory of the city's broad sweep of the Volga frozen and snowcovered into semi-invisibility, Kuibyshev is singularly lacking in outward charm.

The people hurrying purposefully through the streets are reduced to mere dark bundles by their waddings against the cold. The new buildings on the outskirts are stolidly utilitarian. The old buildings at the center display an occasional fantasy, but all are marred by cracking plaster and peeling paint.

The goods in the shops are mostly shoddy. The theater and the opera, the movie houses, the two rather jolly but expensive restaurants, the bleak, cheap "dining halls" and above all the warrens that pass for human living space are uniformly overcrowded to the bursting point. Yet this almost totally graceless city is still an absorbing experience mainly because it is a roaring boomtown, and boomtowns, with their vitality and dynamism, are always exciting in one way or another.

The statistics tell the story. When Kuibyshev was still Samara and young Lenin hung out his lawyer's shingle here, this was an easy-going little mercantile center with a population of 130,000. Today, Kuibyshev is a big industrial city of 760,000; and the Kuibyshev boom continues unabated.

The first part of the secret of Kuibyshev's boom is of course the Soviet government's stern enforcement of an unchallengeable first priority, an absolute first call on all resources for the expansion of this country's industrial base.

Yet I think, perhaps too boldly, that I have found two other important parts of the secret here.

Viral Hepatitis is second only to measles as the most common reportable viral disease. This liver infection has become more prevalent since the onset of World War II. Prior to that time it was called catarrhal jaundice or infectious hepatitis.

The disease is mildly contagious and spread from one person to another occurs in two ways. It may be transmitted through contaminated drinking water, food, or sewage. This type (virus A) is responsible for epidemics comparable to outbreaks of typhoid generations ago.

Serum hepatitis (virus B) is the other form. It is found in

One of these I began to discover when I visited a "technicum." The boys and girls looked bright and alert, but their school had none of the glossy finish and little of the elaborate equipment that you would find in a technical high school in a big American city. Only the most brilliant five per cent were expected to go on to college. The friendly, sensible principal, Efim Yefimov, made no bones about it:

"The state needs at least three qualified technicians for every graduate engineer," he said. "And the chief job of every technician is to train skilled workers—technicians."

He was training new recruits from the construction industry, the ferrous metallurgical industries and half a dozen others. Kuibyshev has a considerable number of other municipal technicians. In addition, Kuibyshev Napht, the great trust that it is developing the Kuibyshev oilfields for the Petroleum Ministry, has its own technicum plus an institute of petroleum engineering. The big Kuibyshev Ball Bearing Plant also has a technicum, and so do most other larger factories. I even learned of the existence of a banking "technicum."

Wandering about the city and asking questions about people's schooling, one got an amazing picture of a highly specialized school system providing an expanding industry with a vast, continuous flow of specially, very economically trained skilled workers.

As for the other part of Kuibyshev's secret which I think I discovered, it was intended to

SEC Lacks Alertness In Watching Wall Street Dealings In Stocks

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — With 10,000,000 Americans operating in the stock market, and with the stock market in prolonged doldrums, a lot of people are taking a look at the Securities and Exchange Commission set up to protect the public from stock-market manipulation. It seems that the SEC, however, is looking the other way. Here is an interesting unpublicized illustration:

Jim Sibbison, alert reporter for the Associated Press, was thumbing through the customers' cards of Elliott and Co., the Wall Street firm which "privately" handled a $4,000,000 bond issue for the Crowell-Collier Publishing Company. Suddenly he came across the names of Thomas E. Dewey and Adlai Stevenson. Immediately he asked the SEC about these two investors.

SEC officials had known about them all along. But, put on the spot by Sibbison, they brought the matter out in public hearing. They revealed that Stevenson had purchased 500 shares of Collier's stock on the open market just like any other investor. He got no privileged, inside position. His purchase was in November 1954 before the debentures now under investigation were sold.

But Dewey, the SEC belatedly revealed, had invested privately in the new debentures in July 1955, through an inside advantage given him by his neighbor, Robert Ducas of Pawling, N. Y. Dewey's name did not even appear on the list of participants of the so-called "private" issue of Collier's stock. His neighbor had a chance to buy $60,000 of these private debentures, let Dewey in on the deal, and the ex-Governor of New York later sold on the stock market, making $3,850.

Once the SEC attorneys were put on the spot they did a good job of cross-examining broker Edward L. Elliott. But they have not summoned Dewey to testify. His friends have been pulling wires with the SEC to prevent his appearance, and so far they have been successful.

Here is the cross-examination of broker Elliott by Edmund Worthy, assistant director of the SEC's Division of Corporate Finance:

"Well, did you ask Mr. Ducas whether or not there was anyone else to participate with him in the debentures that he was going to take?" asked Worthy.

"That is the only place where I had an inkling that there would be another person," replied Elliott. "You people know who that is. You have been fully informed, and I think that it would be a grave injustice to that other person (Dewey) if it were spread on the record. You have been completely informed as to his identity and the circumstances."

Worthy, however, later returned to the subject of the mysterious purchaser. At this point Elliott's lawyer, F. Van S. Parr Jr., raised strenuous objections.

"I don't think there should be any equivocal testimony, Mr. Parr," insisted Daniel J. McCauley Jr., SEC presiding officer, "and I think we should have on the record whether or not on July 7, 1955, Mr. Elliott knew that there was someone other than Mr. Ducas involved in the purchase by Mr. Ducas. Can you say whether or not on that day you did know?"

"On July 7 I had reason to believe that there would be another person in addition to Mr. Ducas," said Elliott. "And who was that person?" asked McCauley. "I thought we had an understanding that that name would not be put on the record by Mr. Elliott," interrupted the disgruntled Parr. SEC's McCauley, however, was determined.

"Well, why was this name kept off this list of 27 that is now in evidence here, sir?" continued Worthy. "This particular individual is very careful to keep his name off as many lists as possible, so his name cannot be improperly used," Elliott explained weakly. "... This particular person happens to be a friend, happens to be a man that I hold in the highest esteem, and Mr. Ducas indicated that it was the desire of both Mr. Ducas and this unnamed person to have it handled in the way that I have mentioned."

Dewey's Knowledge

What makes Dewey's role particularly interesting is the fact that as a top lawyer he should have known the SEC's requirement that an unregistered "private issue" be held by a small number of KNOWN investors. Yet Dewey's identity was concealed.

Dewey also knew that the debentures were convertible to common stock at the bargain price of $5 a share. Other investors promised Crowell-Collier in writing that they wouldn't convert their debentures to stock right away for speculative sale on the market. Dewey did not. Broker Elliott, under cross-examination, claimed Dewey made such a promise to Ducas. But this was not proved, and if so, a promise to Ducas was meaningless.

At any rate, Dewey sold in 1956. That's how he made his profit. Yet he has not been called to Washington to testify.

What the SEC is now doing, belatedly, is fixing the blame for what appears to have been an illegal issue of debentures. Under the SEC law, all public sale of stocks and bonds over $300,000 must be registered with the SEC. Not to do so is a criminal offense. A private sale is permissible, and the Collier's sale was supposed to be private. However, the Collier's debentures in many cases were converted into common stock and sold on the stock market for speculative purposes.

This inside manipulation is what the SEC was set up to prevent. It will be interesting to see whether the present SEC commissioners enforce the law they have sworn to protect.

What should a man pay for a home to be considered a clever, conservative and sensible fellow? According to experts on the subject, the price should not exceed two and a half times the man's yearly income. The monthly payments should not be more than one-fourth of his monthly income.

SIDELIGHTS

It was Pierre Beaumarchais, who observed, "Man is distinguished from the beasts by his practice of drinking when he is not thirsty and making love at all seasons." Am asked if Al Jolson ever played the Palace vaudeville theatre in New York. And if not, why not. Al never played the Palace. It was because he was always under contract to the Shuberts during the heyday of the Palace.

ALMOST CONFIDENTIAL

According to a specialist in physical checkups, the most common ailments among business executives are obesity, cardiovascular disorders and anemia. The term "Battle of the Century" referring to a boxing bout was originated by W. O. "Bill" McGeehan, then of the San Francisco Bulletin, when covering the Gans-Nelson fight in Goldfield, Nev., in 1906.

EDUCATION

Among the very successful men who are graduates of correspondence schools is Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, top man of the Eastern Airlines. Eddie left public school when 12-years-old and went to work in a Columbus, Ohio, glass factory. Shortly after he started taking a correspondence course in the "Theory of Engines." At the age of 16 Rickenbacker was an experienced mechanic.

GUIDE TO GALS

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 20) born executives should have secretaries born under Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) or Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). Females born under these signs have what it takes to handle an Aries boss. That is unusual patience, diplomacy, broad-mindedness, tact, a sense of humor and endurance. Especially a sense of humor and endurance. Or, so say the stargazers.

THIEVERY

Who was the meanest thief you ever heard of? Arrested in Chicago was a man who confessed he had made a living for 48 years robbing church poor boxes. Said he averaged $20 a day. In the Bronx a man was arrested for stealing candy from a baby. He had snatched a lemon stick from the hand of a kiddie. However, the cops in mean crooks probably was the man in St. Louis who was arrested for robbing the cup of a blind man.

TEST

Take a good look at the following sentence. "The quick brown fox jumped over the lazy dog." That sentence includes all the letters of the alphabet but one. If you can't discover which letter is missing in 30 seconds or less, cease calling yourself an observant person.

ASIDES

Statistics indicate the most intelligent people are producing only one-third of the number of children born to those who are less intelligent. Intelligence is hereditary. So is the lack of it. There are more Roman Catholic priests in this country named Murphy than any other name. The Sullivans are second. After that come the Kellys, Walshes and O'Briens.

BRIEFLY

Only fifteen per cent of parents in the United States have three children or more. So, if you and your charming matrimonial mate have more than three youngsters, you are unusual parents. Take a bow. One of the most interesting books on the subject of eye exercises is "The Art of Seeing" by Aldous Huxley.

PLEASE NOTE

Why has nature arranged to have the most objectionable animals reproduce so rapidly? For example, take mice. Research indicates that if a pair of mice enter a home and escape destruction for a year, there will be 400 mice in the house. These 400 mice could reproduce so rapidly that at the second year there could be 50,000 mice. No doubt Elbert Hubbard really had something when he observed, "If a man build a better mousetrap than his neighbor, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."

Hepatitis Cure May Be Just Around The Corner

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

human blood and serum. The infectious agent is passed on during a transfusion or through improperly sterilized needles, syringes, and other surgical and dental equipment used previously on patients harboring the disease.

Early hepatitis resembles the flu. Loss of appetite, headache, and constipation prevail for the first few days, along with vague abdominal distress. In others, the onset is acute with headache, nausea, and high fever. Up to this time there is no indication that this liver infection is responsible for the symptoms. The first clew is yellowing of the skin on the fourth or fifth day. This discoloration explains why old-timers called the condition catarrhal jaundice.

Jaundice may last for weeks or months, and finally disappears when healing occurs. But hepatitis may never reach the jaundice stage, and unless laboratory tests are done, flu may be blamed.

The victim of hepatitis is tired, has no appetite, and loses weight until the infection subsides. Even mild cases are serious, because they are potentially contagious. The man or woman is unaware of the nature of the illness and acts as a reservoir for the virus. He is likely to contaminate food and drink, in mingling with others. Furthermore, when these individuals donate blood they are subjecting the recipients to the disease.

Much research has been conducted to find a way to sterilize blood and serum for transfusions. Scientists at the Henry Ford hospital at Detroit studied 600 chemicals over a period of six years and beta-propiolactone proved best. They have used it for four years without encountering a single case of hepatitis. Radiation with cobalt-60 kills the virus without affecting the serum.

Scientists all over the nation are attempting to find a preventive medicine against hepatitis. In my opinion, it is just around the corner, and when it arrives, another disease will hit the dust.

TOMORROW: Serenity can be developed.

Try And Stop Me!

By Bennett Cerf

A doctor diagnosed a patient's run-down condition as too much worry over money matters. "Relax," he ordered. "Just two weeks ago I had another fellow here in a dither because he couldn't pay his tailor bills. I told him to forget about them and now he feels great."

"I know," said the patient glumly. "I'm his tailor."

An actor who had proved conclusively on numerous hunting trips that he was the poorest shot in California came home in high spirits from the studio to report to his wife, "There's a new Lincoln picture on the schedule, and I've landed the role of John Wilkes Booth."

"Some choice!" scoffed the little woman. "I'll bet you 3 to 1 you miss."

"Did you hear what that absent-minded Professor Mack did yesterday?" chortled Mrs. Green. "He sent his wife down to the bank and kissed his money goodbye."

Mr. Green sighed heavily, and said, "The professor isn't as absent-minded as I thought!"

Couple Dies As Car Hits Abutment

Edward Youngblood, Wife, Killed In Route 51 Crash

A man and his wife, parents of three children, were fatally injured at 11 a.m. Sunday about 10 miles southeast of Cumberland when their car struck a concrete abutment on Oldtown Road.

The victims were Edward Youngblood, 41, and his wife, Mrs. Phyllis (Miller) Youngblood, 39, formerly of Paw Paw, W. Va., but more recently residing at 610 North Main Street, Wheeling, W. Va.

State Police Trooper Robert Wolford said the driver of the car apparently lost control and struck a concrete abutment over a small bridge. The crash was head-on and dead-center, the trooper stated.

The officer said he arrived minutes after the crash and found Mrs. Youngblood lying about 15 feet from the car, and her husband lying outside the car door on the driver's side. The engine of the automobile had been pushed back onto the front seat.

Mr. Youngblood was dead, Trooper Wolford said, but he thought Mrs. Youngblood was still alive and rushed her to the Memorial Hospital, where she was reported dead on arrival.

Bodies Identified

Dr. H. V. Deming, county medical examiner, ordered both bodies removed to George Funeral Home while an effort was made to identify the victims. It was not until about 2:30 p. m. that positive identification was made by Mrs. Jack F. Moore, Gephart Drive, a cousin of Mr. Youngblood.

Dr. Deming said both bodies were badly mangled and each had several injuries, any one of which could have caused death.

Mrs. Youngblood had a laceration in her neck which severed a main artery, and she suffered from rapid loss of blood. She also sustained a skull fracture and a fractured neck. Her left foot was burned and there were multiple lacerations, bruises and abrasions.

Mr. Youngblood had a crushed chest, fractured skull and shattered left leg, burns on his right foot, and severe lacerations, bruises and abrasions.

State Police said the car caught fire shortly after the crash and District 16 Volunteer Fire Company was called to the scene. Firemen extinguished the flames in the front seat with water. Two tow trucks were required to remove the wreckage.

On Way To Wheeling

Mr. and Mrs. Youngblood owned a home in Paw Paw, where they had lived for a number of years. However, a couple of years ago, they moved to Wheeling where he had been working as a carpenter, constructing a school and later a hospital building. He had come to Paw Paw on Wednesday to get some of his tools, and police found a power saw and a kit of carpenter tools in the car.

The couple had visited relatives in Paw Paw over the weekend and were en route on their return trip to Wheeling when the tragedy occurred.

Mr. Youngblood was a son of Mrs. Mary (Northcraft) Youngblood Hartsock of Paw Paw, and the late Edward Youngblood. He was born in Paw Paw October 23, 1915.

Mrs. Youngblood was a daughter of Tye Howard Miller and Nelle Catherine (Kelly) Miller of Rowlesburg, W. Va., where she was born. She had been working in Wheeling recently for the Singer Sewing Machine Company, and membership cards in her possession showed she was in the Parent-Teacher Association at Washington School there and also was a volunteer leader in 4-H Club work. She was also a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Their children are Cozanne, 15, Michael, 17, and James, 12. The children remained in Wheeling with relatives, and were notified last evening of the death of their parents. They will come here today, Mrs. Youngblood has a brother, Ralph Miller, RFD 4, who established identification last evening after he was notified.

The bodies are at the George Funeral Home.

Local Man Involved In Fatal Crash

Three Teen-Agers Die In Collision

A Cumberland truck driver was involved in a fatal motor vehicle accident early Saturday morning near Elizabethtown, Pa., in which three teen-age youths were killed and six other persons injured.

Pennsylvania authorities from Lancaster County, Pa., indicated last night they will question Edward L. Bittner, 36, of Route 1, Box 748, Cumberland, in their investigation.

Three youths were killed in the accident, which occurred about 12:10 a. m. Saturday when their car loaded with 10 teen-agers went out of control and crashed about 7/10 of a mile west of Elizabethtown on Route 230.

The car sideswiped a truck driven by Bittner and crashed into an embankment and tree. Killed instantly were Robert Purcell, 17, the driver, and William Boyer, 18, both of Middletown, Pa. Richard Tinker, 16, of Highspire, near Harrisburg, Pa., died about half an hour after the mishap.

Police said seven boys decided to take a ride to Hershey, Pa., and en route home, gave a lift to three girls they knew. Shortly after the girls entered the car, Purcell was traveling down a grade on Route 230 when he failed to negotiate a curve.

The automobile sideswiped Bittner's tractor-trailer, loaded with bricks, and careened off the highway, smashing into an embankment and then a tree. A door was ripped from the left side of the vehicle and seven of the 10 occupants of the car were spilled into the road.

State Police at Lancaster, Pa., said last night that six of the teen-agers who were hospitalized there were in "satisfactory" condition.

Bittner and his son, who was an occupant of the tractor-trailer, were not injured.

Police Probe In Stabbing To Continue

County authorities will continue investigation of the stabbing of a 38-year-old Cresaptown man Saturday, with questioning of the accused knife-wielder and witnesses today in the State's Attorney's office.

Trooper Donald R. Wade of the Maryland State Police said Herbert Allen Yow is a patient in Sacred Heart Hospital with stab wounds received in a dispute with a neighbor, Vernon Ray Strickland, 43. The incident took place Saturday afternoon.

Hospital attendants last night said Mr. Yow's condition was "critical," although he had shown "slight improvement."

Trooper Wade said an argument started between the Yow and Strickland families, who reside in the same apartment building behind a Cresaptown tavern.

He said the fight took place behind the Cunningham Tavern, and that Strickland whipped out a Marine Corps knife, stabbed Yow in the left chest and slashed open the muscle of his upper right arm. Both wounds are reported to be deep, but no vital organs are involved, it was reported at Sacred Heart Hospital to which the injured man was taken and where he was treated by Dr. Lewis Brings.

He was given blood plasma and is said to be suffering from a cold, in addition to his injuries. Strickland was arrested by Trooper Wade and placed in Allegany County Jail, pending the outcome of Yow's injuries. No bond has been set.

Brakes Catch Fire

LaVale Volunteer firemen were called out about 11 a. m. yesterday when the brakes of an east-bound tractor-trailer caught fire along the National Highway near Narrows Park.

Safety Talk Due Today In Frederick

District Women Plan Campaign

A drive to bring about effective citizen support for traffic safety measures in every county and community in Western Maryland will be started at a safety forum at 9 a. m. today in the Francis Scott Key Hotel in Frederick.

Today's meeting is being conducted by the Federated Women's Clubs in the First District of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. E. Irving Baumgartner of Oakland is president of the district, which embraces Garrett, Allegany, Washington, Frederick, Carroll and Harford counties.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs, the parent organization of the Maryland group, chose Maryland for this pilot operation to determine whether aggressive action of federated women could spearhead citizen support for traffic safety at the local level. Mrs. Baumgartner said that if the Maryland project is successful it probably could be adopted by other state federations.

Purpose of today's forum, one of six scheduled throughout the state, is to review the traffic accident problem, determine how existing citizen organizations can work together in helping state, county and local officials develop and put into action practical, uniform and sustained citizen organizations for traffic safety in every community.

The Maryland project was announced by Mrs. William A. Douglas, this city, president of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs. It will be under the direction of Mrs. John S. Gardner, Baltimore, chairman of the Safety Division, Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs.

Tickets For Minstrelks Still Available

Plenty of good reserved seat tickets for both evening performances of the Minstrelks of 1957 tonight and tomorrow night at the Maryland Theatre are still available. John H. Mosner, general chairman, reported last night.

There will be matinees both today and tomorrow at 2:15 o'clock, but there are no reserved seats for these performances. Tickets will be sold at the box office.

Mr. Mosner also urged all King Neptune candidates to leave their final returns at the Maryland Theatre box office by noon today. The King Neptune winner will not be announced until Tuesday night.

It is so easy, like Omar Khayyam, to become fatalistic in our attitudes and outlook.

My friends, fatalism can never be reconciled with Christianity. The doctrine that whatever is to be will be, regardless of anything that we may do, is absolutely pagan, and diametrically opposed to the spirit of Christ. Jesus believed that man could do something about the human situation, and acted upon that conviction.

He recognized the mistakes of the past, and the elements of evil in the present situation, and steadfastly set his face like flint toward the future. He declared, "The Father worketh up to now" (and not just at Creation's dawn) "and I work." And Paul has summarized the Christian attitude as one of adventurous creativity: "We are workers together with God."

Well, there is much of hope for the man who begins this way. "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended. I do not claim to have reached the top." Nothing of the smug complacency of the self-righteous perfectionist.

Here we have the picture of an unrealized spiritual ambition, a healthy dissatisfaction of soul.

Man Is Found Asphyxiated At His Home

George M. Brown Overcome By Gas

George M. Brown, 66, of 122 South Lee Street, was found asphyxiated in the bathroom of his home yesterday morning at about 8 o'clock.

According to police and Dr. H. V. Deming, county medical examiner, Mr. Brown made his home with a relative, Mrs. Virginia Erley at this address, and lived next door to a nephew and niece, James Brown and Mary Brown. Mrs. Erley, Albert Brown and Agnes Cook were the other occupants of the house.

About 8 a. m. yesterday, Mrs. Mary Brown went next door to arouse her relatives, as she thought she smelled gas. She found George Brown overcome in the bathroom, and other members of the household affected by the fumes. However, none of the others required treatment for effects of the gas fumes.

Dr. Deming stated that a gas heater in the bathroom had in some manner been extinguished and gas was escaping into the room and throughout the dwelling. He said Mr. Brown was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital immediately, but was dead on arrival.

He determined that death was caused by carbon monoxide poisoning and the resultant asphyxiation.

Mr. Brown was a veteran of World War I, and was born in Cumberland January 31, 1891, a son of the late Albert and Agnes (Cook) Brown. He was employed as a porter at the Southern Bar.

He is survived by two brothers, Noah A. Brown, city, and Joseph Brown, Johnstown, Pa.; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Banister and Mrs. Fannie Brown, both of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Clarence Dickerson, Milwaukee, Wis., and Mrs. Ella Bostic, Youngstown, Ohio, and a number of nieces and nephews.

The body is at the Hafer Funeral Home where services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. by Rev. David C. Street II, vicar of St. Philip's Episcopal Church. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Members of Fulton Myers Post 153, American Legion, will conduct military rites at graveside.

Survey Shows Brightest Teen-Agers Not Bookish

"Our brightest teen-agers are not bookworms but able students with a surprising number and variety of extra-curricular and community activities," according to John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Mr. Stalnaker drew his conclusion from a study of personal records of the "Merit Scholars of 1956"—a group of 556 college freshmen who were winners of the largest private scholarship competition in U. S. history. They were selected solely on their demonstrated ability to benefit from college training.

Robert Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Payne, 825 Gephart Drive, and a senior at Allegany High School, is still in the running for one of the 750 National Merit Scholarships for 1957.

A significant number of the Merit scholars could not have gone to the college they are attending had not the Merit Scholarship helped bear the cost. Each scholarship is tailored to the individual financial need of each student. The average Merit Scholar is requiring $630 per year, or $2,520 for the four-year course, in addition to help his parents can provide, to stay in college.

Almost 10 per cent, however, require $1,500 per year or more. One student, whose family is not able to help him, is attending a distinguished college at some distance from his home, where his annual help from his Merit Scholarship is $2,200 per year. Privately-endowed colleges were selected by 81 per cent of the winners.

Man Fatally Shot While Hunting Fox

Franklin Manges Found Near Home

A 52-year-old Pennsylvania man was fatally shot Saturday evening in a hunting accident near his home at Bard, near Buffalo Mills, Pa.

The victim was Franklin Henry Manges. His body was found about 9:30 p. m. by his son, Walter, at the foot of a drop. He had apparently slipped in a large boulder, causing his gun to discharge.

Death was caused by a bullet wound in the neck, according to Dr. J. H. Kniseley, coroner of Bedford County.

Mr. Manges had left his home in the afternoon to go fox hunting, and when he failed to return home for his supper his family became alarmed and began a search.

Members of the Hyndman Volunteer Fire Company and other neighbors combed the woods in the area before his body was found by his son about a mile from his home.

Mr. Manges was a brother of Earl E. Manges, local attorney.

He was born September 20, 1903 in Somerset County, a son of the late Martin L. and Rhoda Ann (Pew) Manges, and was employed as a bricklayer at Works 7, Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company here.

Also surviving, besides his son and brother, are his widow, Veda Mae (Mowry) Manges; another brother, Charles B. Manges, Akron, Ohio; three sisters, Mrs. Clara Mowry, Duquesne, Pa.; Mrs. Nellie Mowry, Fairhope, Cumberland January 31, 1891, a son of the late Albert and Agnes (Cook) Brown. He was employed as a porter at the Southern Bar.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. at Mt. Zion Lutheran Church by Rev. James N. Scharf, pastor. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Howard Bruner, George and Blair Holler, George and Ross Barclay and Bert Leydig.

The body is at the Zeigler Funeral Home, Hyndman.

Cumberland Man Found Dead In Well

Grant E. Feight's Body Discovered With Throat Cut

The body of a 45-year-old Cumberland man was discovered yesterday afternoon at the bottom of a 40-foot abandoned well near the grounds of Newton D. Baker Veterans Hospital, Martinsburg, W. Va. His throat had been cut.

Berkeley County authorities are investigating the mysterious circumstances surrounding the finding of Grant E. Feight's body following a call from a resident in the area that something was wrong at the well.

County coroner, Dr. C. G. Power, said the Potomac Park man suffered an incised wound under his jaw from one side of the face to the other. The wound, however, was not deep enough to sever the windpipe.

Dr. Power declined to issue a verdict as to cause of death pending completion of the investigation, but said he believed it might be "either murder or suicide."

Had Been In Hospital

The coroner said Mr. Feight had been a patient at the veterans hospital for three days before being discharged Saturday.

On Sunday, police were informed a man's clothing was hanging from a fence dividing the hospital grounds from the well site.

Investigating, they discovered a man's coat, hat, belt and handkerchief on the fence. The topcoat and hat were covered with blood, Dr. Power stated.

At a nearby pond on the hospital grounds a partial denture plate was found. Police noted also that rain in the area had stopped about 11 a. m. yesterday, and that the clothes on the fence were dry, apparently indicating they had been placed there after that time.

A wallet found in the topcoat held credentials belonging to Mr. Feight, but contained no money, and police searched the area before probing the well, which had been covered with wooden planks. Mr. Feight's body was found in the water at the bottom of the well.

Was Father Of Two

Mr. Feight was born August 17, 1911, in Gapsville, Pa., a son of Mrs. Joey Winck, Breezewood, Pa., and the late Joseph Feight. He is survived by his mother; his widow, the former Beulah Wiley; two children, Ronald and Roger Feight, both at home; a brother, Thornton Feight, Breezewood; two sisters, Mrs. Leroy Byrd, RD 4, Bedford, Pa.; and Mrs. Chester Williams, Defiance, Pa.

A member of the Cresaptown Methodist Church, Mr. Feight was a veteran of World War II and had been wounded in action at Anzio Beachhead.

The body is at the H. K. Brown Funeral Home in Martinsburg, and is expected to be sent to Cumberland sometime today, and will be brought to the George Funeral Home here.
